CELEBRATING 125 YEARS IN THE BAY OF ISLANDS

Albert Ernest Fuller

When Albert Ernest Fuller launched the sailing ship the 'Undine' in 1886 to deliver coal supplies to the islands, he could not have foreseen the impact he would have on tourism. With the fitting of a motor to the 'Undine' in the early 1900's, he was able to deliver coal & essential supplies as far as Cape Brett. In 1927 Fuller acquired the 'Cream Trip' from Edmund Lane with facilities to transport cream from the islands and in 1928 won the Royal Mail contract allowing him to deliver post.

By the 1960's the Cream Trip was a popular attraction and the well known Bay Belle started its run. For five shillings a tourist could spend all day on the launch, picking up cream cans from the isolated farms and have a great outing on the bay.

When the road opened from Whangarei to Russell in the 1930's a car ferry service began between Paihia and Russell. During World War II, the military established a barge crossing between Opuia and Okiato, this was continued during peacetime by the Deeming family and eventually sold to Fuller making Fullers an integral part of the community through the provision of services to both tourists and locals.

By the mid 80's the Bay of Islands was a proven destination for tourists and Fullers were providing regular trips to the Hole in the Rock, Cream Trip Tours and coaches to Cape Reinga Ninety Mile Beach. Today Fullers GreatSights comprises a fleet of 10 vessels, 6 coaches and employs up to 100 team members.

We would like to thank the community for its support through the years to bring us here to our 125th anniversary. We are proud to be part of the history of the Bay of Islands and look forward to sharing it with you.

Our famous Cream Trip cruise has been in operation since 1927

WELCOME TO THE BAY ISLANDS

Regarded as the birthplace of New Zealand, Northland is rich in both culture and early Maori and European history – from Kupe, believed to be the very first Maori voyager to arrive in New Zealand over 1,000 years ago, to the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi between Maori and the Crown.

The Bay of Islands is a stunning region consisting of 144 islands, abundant in natural wonder and marine life. Experience it to the full with a visit to the awe-inspiring Hole in the Rock, swim with dolphins in their natural environment or journey to the cultural and historic Hokianga. Travel further north and experience the thrill of driving along Ninety Mile Beach, sandboarding down the giant sand dunes and standing on the windswept tip of New Zealand, where the Tasman Sea and Pacific Ocean collide.

We're proud to showcase this beautiful region to visitors from around the world. We welcome you to the birthplace of our nation.

The Fullers brand has seen many changes over the years - though we continue to evolve, our proud history remains core to our identity.

Designed for nature lovers and those wanting to see all the highlights of the Bay in one day. This day trip is the most extensive historical cruise offered in the Bay of Islands.
